Other Leave Policy (Applicable with Immediate Effect)

1. Casual Leave (CL)

Each employee is entitled to one casual leave per month.

Any leave taken beyond one casual leave in a month will be considered LOP (Loss of Pay).

Casual leave must be approved in advance by the reporting manager.

2. Festive / Holiday Leave

Festive holidays will be observed as per the company holiday calendar shared at the beginning of the year.

Employees are required to plan their work accordingly around festive holidays.

3. Marriage Leave

Employees getting married are eligible for up to 5 days of paid leave.

Marriage leave must be applied for in advance and is subject to management approval.

This benefit is applicable once during the tenure with the company.

4. Medical Emergency Leave (Parents)

In case of a serious medical emergency involving an employee's parents, the company may allow up to 3 days of leave.

Subject to management approval.

Submission of a valid medical certificate is mandatory.

5. Loss of Pay (LOP)

Any leave taken beyond the approved leave balance or without prior approval will be treated as Loss of Pay.

6. Leave Approval Process

All leave requests must be submitted through the designated approval process.

Emergency leaves should be informed to the reporting manager at the earliest possible time.

Employees are requested to adhere to the leave policy to ensure smooth workflow and operational efficiency.

Office Working Hours & Compliance

Office Working Hours

- Office timing is 10:00 AM to 6:30 PM.
- All employees must report sharply at 10:00 AM.
- Employees are required to maintain a total of 8 hours and 30 minutes of working time daily.

CRM Login Requirement

- Daily working hours must be properly logged and maintained in the office CRM.
- Failure to maintain the required working hours in the CRM will be considered non-compliance.

Late Mark Policy

- A late mark will be applicable if an employee reports late to the office and/or the required 8 hours 30 minutes working time is not maintained in the CRM.
- 4 late marks will result in deduction of half-day salary.

Employees are requested to strictly follow office timings and ensure accurate CRM login to avoid salary deductions and disciplinary action.
